Exclusive induction webcast of Steve Largent, Harmon Killebrew, Steve Smith and humanitarian winners Vince and Barbara Dooley, Bobby Martin and Bill Lofholm begins at 7:30 p.m. (MST), Thursday, Nov. 30 at www.SportsHumanitarian.com

BOISE, Idaho, Nov. 29, 2006 – The induction ceremonies of the World Sports Humanitarian Hall of Fame honoring Steve Largent, Harmon Killebrew and Steve Smith for their community contributions will be streamed live at www.SportsHumanitarian.com beginning at 7:30 p.m. (MST) / 9:30 p.m. (EST), Thursday, Nov. 30. The World Sports Humanitarian Hall of Fame Induction Ceremonies Presented by Albertsons will be streamed courtesy of NBC affiliate KTVB Television in Boise.

By logging onto www.SportsHumanitarian.com sports fans everywhere can witness the induction of Largent, a Seattle Seahawks Pro Football Hall of Famer and former U.S. congressman, Killebrew, a Minnesota Twins National Baseball Hall of Famer, and Smith, an NBA World Champion and Olympic gold medalist who played with NBA teams in Miami, Atlanta, Portland, San Antonio, New Orleans and Charlotte.

“We are thrilled to bring the Boise induction of Steve Largent, Harmon Killebrew and Steve Smith to a world-wide audience,” said Larry Maneely, president of the board of the World Sports Humanitarian Hall of Fame. “Their humanitarian accomplishments are impressive. Steve Largent, Harmon Killebrew and Steve Smith have set the bar high for all of us.”

The Humanitarian Hall of Fame’s annual Humanitarian Awards will also be presented as part of the induction ceremonies. Legendary Georgia football coach Vince Dooley and his wife Barbara will receive the Hall’s Nell and John Wooden Lifetime Coaching Achievement Award and Ohio’s Bobby Martin, who broke physical limits and mended racial bridges while playing high school football without legs, will receive the Founder’s Award. Nampa Idaho’s Bill Lofholm, a longtime caretaker of baseball fields in the suburban Boise community, will receive the Don Simplot Idaho Award.

The two-hour program will include exclusive interviews with Humanitarian Hall of Fame inductees and award recipients at the conclusion of the stream along with appearances by several well-known sports figures including former Green Bay Packer star and Super Bowl I and II champion Jerry Kramer, former Michigan State basketball coach Jud Heathcote, and Boise State University players Jared Zabransky, Korey Hall and Mike T. Williams.

The Humanitarian Hall of Fame, located on the Boise State University campus, annually inducts individuals who are world-class in athletic ability, role models in their community and have a strong record of humanitarian efforts. Since President Gerald R. Ford served as its first honorary chairman in 1994 over 30 sports-humanitarians have been enshrined including tennis great Arthur Ashe, major league baseball pioneer Jackie Robinson, NFL coaching legend Tom Landry, the NBA's David Robinson, and soccer great Pelé.

About The World Sports Humanitarian Hall of Fame

The World Sports Humanitarian Hall of Fame (www.sportshumanitarian.com), located on the Boise State University campus in Boise, Idaho, recognizes individuals and organizations from the world of amateur and professional athletics who, through their humanitarian efforts, distinguish themselves as role models in the community. Since 1994 over thirty role models with world-class athletic ability and exceptional humanitarian achievements have been inducted to the World Sports Humanitarian Hall of Fame. Each spring the induction ceremony includes recipients of an annual humanitarian awards program that recognizes community achievement in all corners of the sporting world through its President's Award, Pro Team Community Award, Don Simplot Idaho Humanitarian Award, the Tradition of Excellence Award presented to a Heisman Trophy winner, and the Nell and John Wooden Humanitarian Lifetime Coaching Achievement Award. Each year the Hall of Fame, in partnership with Boise's MPC Computers Bowl, honors a player from each team with its Student Humanitarian Award. The World Sports Humanitarian Hall of Fame is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization and is open weekdays to visitors and humanitarians of all ages.
